About TCA and Member Organizations

If you're a construction subcontractor or supplier, the Texas Construction Association (TCA) is the professional association that supports your business and lobbies on your behalf. TCA comprises 15 member associations and promotes the political and legislative interests of these organizations. Member benefits include:

- Legislative support for initiatives that favor your business.
- Legislative bill tracking and hearing schedule
- Premium discounts on workers' comp insurance via the purchasing power of the TCA-endorsed Workers' Compensation Insurance Program
- Educational and networking resources
- Career Center to help you find the most qualified employees
